Curt Wood

Our hope for the chorus this year
Is for us to sing without fear
With COVID long gone
We'll sing a sweet song
And give our friends something to cheer

This COVID is on the way out
This gives us good reason to shout
As soon as it's gone
We'll get back to song
That's what this is now all about

Good Lord willing and the Creek don't rise we will be singing together in October!

The Peanut Gallery ReOpens

Have you ever been accused of lying? Well, I guess I fall into that camp. Didn't mean to, but at the very least, I misled you. The new updated news: The Gallery has reopened. What happened? Well, for starters, Venezuela didn't follow through with the big renovation bucks as promised. Then, the Board of Health reversed its closing mandate—after I bribed them with four tickets to the 2022 Show! Money talks!

Peanut Farm

It really does, I know it. You know it. We all know it. But, honestly, I am finding it's not easy running the plantation—feeding horses, milking cows, harvesting the wheat, getting the grain elevator to go up and down! I'm flat and off pitch. As General Doug MacArthur said to me one day: "Old Peanuts never die, they just peel away." I am pleased to report that life is opening up in the tundra. People are smiling, happy faces abound. There is music in the air. "Oh what a beautiful morning, oh what a beautiful day, I've got a beautiful feeling, everything's goin' my way." (We could make a song out of that, don't you think?). Stay tuned for the next chapter, Better yet, send in some cheery thoughts to the Great Jerry V for ShopNotes.

See ya. Gotta go. Getting close to beverage hour!

The Marketing Guy

Good News!!! The CDC has said that anyone who has received the vaccine may gather together in groups without a mask. While this is good news for the general public, as singers we may wish to socially distance for a little while longer. Your chapter Board will discuss this issue at the June board meeting. In any event it is reasonable to assume we will resume regular rehearsals in the fall when our snowbird members return.

Gray Poehler

Your music team will continue with the weekly Zoom rehearsals throughout the summer months. All are encouraged to participate to keep the repertoire fresh and our voices strong.

In addition to the resumption of regular rehearsals, we are also now accepting performance requests for the upcoming high season. Please mark your calendars, We have a Chorus performance at the Terraces on January 14, and an Ensemble gig at the Marbella in Pelican Bay on January 27. Details to follow.

Adam

Adam's mother Beverly passed away

Beverly Guttenplan passed away in May. Adam has been placed in a group home in East Naples. He is very interested in continuing as an active member. The Board is trying to make contact with him, but have not been successful. It is the Board's intention to continue these efforts and, if possible, make arrangements for Adam to attend rehearsals once they have started in October.

Please let John know of any news about our members
