The deadline for getting your program ad copy to Bob Davidson has been extended to Wednesday January 22. DON'T DELAY; the time is slipping by.

The Marketing Guy

Wow, here we are and it's 2020!

Not only the start of a new year, but a new decade.

Really a great time for

New Year/New Decade Resolutions.

With this in mind I would like to share the resolutions I have made as they relate to our barbershop hobby.

Gray Poehler

1 I will be off the paper on all new show songs by January 31.

2

I will sell my 30 show ticket allotment or buy them myself and give them to friends

3

I will sell at least 1 full page of show program ads by the deadline.

4

I will try really hard to be open and receptive to the opinions of others.

And lastly, I will be thankful for good health, a loving family, friends, and the fellowship we all share. I wish for each of you continued good health and prosperity in this New Year.

From The Peanut Gallery

"And Awaaay We Go!"—as spoken by Jackie Gleason, The Great One! Well, Christmas is done; New Years is gonzo! I think Jackie Gleason's "directive" is a pretty good line of thinking as we continue our work on 2020 music.

I'm now on Playback Genius, which is taking the place of Box. It's working for me, and I strongly encourage members of the chorus to get on board—and the quicker the better as it's a great tool for learning the repertoire.

Jerry Vetowich is the in-house expert but by now others may be in a position to provide aid and comfort at no cost! Once we get this music tattooed in our cranium I see fun times ahead. Confidence builds, the deer in the headlights evaporates, faces shine brightly—and all that good stuff! And you ask about nuts? I got 'em—shelled, unshelled, salted, unsalted.

My cupboard is full of finely roasted nuts.
Do you know that you too can be a famous nut!

Greetings from the Dallas suburbs home of the Vocal Majority

Happy New Year to all as we commence with the busiest and most important three months of our chorus' year. We welcome back our remaining snowbirds as we prepare for the three performances of our annual show and additional sing-outs.

In addition to beginning a new calendar year, we are also starting a new year for your chorus' Board of Directors. Under the leadership of Tony Pasqua, you have a new Board comprised of very capable and talented members. I am confident Tony will do an outstanding job and that all members will give him and the Board their full cooperation as they did for me this past year.

We have a lot of work to do, especially during the next two months.
So let's buckle down and get started!
